EXPERIENCE:

Brad began his internship in 1996 working with an architect in Kent, Ohio. While working there he gained experience in designing religious facilities and residential and commercial projects. He later worked for an architectural firm in Cleveland, Ohio for 3 ½ years. His position as a Firm Associate presented invaluable experiences in budgeting, job management, CADD drafting, designing and client relations.

Brad moved to the Ohio Valley and worked for Kayafas Architects from 2001 to 2012 as a Designer / Project Manager. This position allowed him to be involved from project infancy through the completion of many project by means of client relations, design, budgeting, construction document creation and technical support. His experience at Kayafas Architects allowed him to further strengthen his architectural abilities through quality leadership. During his tenure, Brad became the Lead Designer on a great variety of successful projects ranging from small additions, custom homes, large schools and religious facilities.

Brad became Co-Founder / Principal of Breisch & Crowley, LLC in 2012.

A progressive Design / Build firm based in St. Clairsville, Ohio – Breisch & Crowley performs a variety of work including: residential additions and renovations, custom residential designs, site assessments for residential and commercial developments, custom legacy timber frame homes, as well as commercial projects including adaptive reuse, religious, healthcare, restaurant, educational, office, banking, retail, museum, manufacturing, distribution, industrial, & civic projects.

Brad also is the co-owner of Three Labs Mercantile on Main. Their shop is located on the first floor of the Breisch & Crowley building in downtown St. Clairsville, OH. It is a historic and beautifully curated space filled with vintage stock, art, antiques, handmade items, lighting, furniture crafted from salvaged materials and unique items. Three Labs Mercantile on Main has a passion for finding antique and vintage treasures, which is the foundation for their motto "We get our Paws Dirty". Brad and Lynn have three labrador retrievers, Hannah, Stella and Gracie, who are the name sake for their eclectic brick and mortar location which also includes the Flatiron Coffee Shop. The addition of Flatiron Coffee to the Breisch & Crowley building makes for a nice treat when having meetings with the Design / Build firm.
